

POSITION	University Program Coordinator (USyd - Faculty of Health Science)
SALARY	$55,000 - $65,000 (Inc. Super) - pro rata
EMPLOYMENT TYPE	Part Time
LOCATION	Sydney
START	January 2019

batyr is a 'for purpose' preventative mental health organisation, created and driven by young people, for young people. We run programs that help smash the stigma surrounding mental health and empower young people to reach out for support. We help create supportive communities.

We are an energetic, fun and dynamic team who are passionate about changing the way we speak about mental health. Excitingly, we are on the hunt to build our team with even more passionate, skilled and driven people to continue to develop our high-performance culture and expand the reach and impact of batyr. If you want a workplace where you can bring all of your full, weird and wonderful self to the office each day, this is the place.

working with us

At batyr, we make sure we have fun while doing important work. We care deeply about those we welcome into our work-family and do our best to support our team. We do this by:

- providing all permanent staff with a wellbeing budget that you can use for the gym, new surfboard, pottery class, ukulele lessons... almost whatever you need to help keep you feeling good
- providing ongoing professional training and wellbeing sessions
- structured internal and external mentoring
- wellbeing leave - your personal leave doesn't just have to be for sick days, at batyr you can also use this leave to support your mental health and wellbeing
- mid-year and end-of-year retreats
- flexible working arrangements about you

You love to get amongst it with Uni students and helping to plan and create events and activations that get Uni students pumped. You take a positive approach to solving problems and supporting volunteers and embrace the challenges that come with that. You care deeply about making communities of people who care about the people around them and take action to make their lives better. You wake up thinking how you can make the world a better place to live and you set about getting it done! You love to energise diverse groups of people so that the work you do includes people and creates strength in numbers. You live the batyr values of balance, boldness, empathy, inclusivity, and positivity.

Most of all, you just can't wait to make universities full of positive conversations about mental health and want to have a good time doing it!

position summary

The University Program Coordinator (USyd) will be the batyr rep on campus at USyd FHS to work alongside contacts at the University to delivery the batyr@uni program across faculties, colleges and societies. The role will include the booking and coordinating of batyr@uni programs, alongside supporting the volunteer group of students (batyr@USyd Exec) to deliver events, initiatives and campaigns on campus. The university program at USyd is aimed at reducing stigma and increasing help seeking behaviour for young people and promoting the message that it's ok to not be ok. The role will be pivotal in nurturing and developing batyr's relationships with key stakeholders within the university and to the success of the partnership more broadly. This role will assist in the direction of batyr's core university program at USyd, identifying needs and helping the team continue to improve how we do things at batyr's partner Uni's.

The University Program Coordinator (USyd) will report directly to the Regional Team Leader (NSW).

key responsibilities

- Drive the recruitment, training and ongoing support of the batyr Student Executive Team by working within the batyr University Program framework
- Provide advice and feedback to the Regional Team Leader (NSW) around what is tracking well and areas of improvement for the batyr program at USyd
- Key stakeholder management within the University partnership. Working closely with the University structures, including faculties, union, units, accommodation services, counseling services and students
- Assist the Being Herd team in the recruitment of students for the Being Herd (speaker training) workshops
- Provide reports and feedback to University contacts and stakeholders ensuring succesful implementation of the key deliverables outlined in batyr/USyd agreement
- Attend and/or present at workshops, meetings, forums & conferences relating to the program and batyr
- Additional projects as required by the Regional Team Leader
- Continued collaborative and effective teamwork with University stakeholders; the Regional Team Leader, the NSW team, the batyr@uni team and the wider batyr team.

essential selection criteria

- Active interest in tackling the stigma around mental health in young people as well as a desire to facilitate positive behavioral change.
- People person able to interact with everybody from a vice chancellor to a first year uni student
- Excellent organisational and communication skills
- Experience in program content development, event planning and/or project management
- Demonstrated facilitation skills
- Aligned to batyr's five values; empathy, inclusive, balance, positive and bold desirable selection criteria

- Relevant tertiary qualifications
- Certificate IV in Training and Development
- Full driver's license
-

how to apply:

Please email your cover letter & CV to careers@batyr.com.au by 9am Monday 10 December with the job title in the subject line.